Disclaimer and Signature

I certify that all of the information furnished on this application is true, complete, and correct. I understand and agree that any falsification, misrepresentation or omission of fact, either on this application, or during the pre-hire process may make me ineligible for employment with Child360.

Child360 is an at-will employer, and I understand and agree that if offered employment with Child360, my employment is at-will.

The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 states that employers must require all persons hired to submit documents to the employer showing their identity and their right to be lawfully employed in the United States. It also requires the employee to completed and sign a government form to this effect. If you are hired by Child360, you will need to furnish documents for inspection that verify your identity, and indicate that you are legally permitted to work in the United States. These documents must be provided within three (3) working days of employment. If the original documents are not available, you must submit proof that you have applied for the required documents. A list of acceptable documents is listed on the verification form you will be asked to complete.

By signing this application form, I hereby authorize Child360 and its agents to investigate the statements made on this application. I understand that Child360 may investigate my background that may include my education, previous employments, criminal history and driving record. The purpose of this background check is to verify the statements I have made on the application for employment, and to help determine my qualifications for employment at Child360.

I have read and understood the above statements.
